FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SCDCA RETURNS TO FLORENCE ON JANUARY 7, 2009

Columbia, SC... ...The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs (SCDCA) will visit the Florence community on Wednesday, January 7, 2009, to handle consumer complaints and questions. Regional SCDCA outreach coordinator Hugh Crofoot will pay a visit to the general conference room at the Florence County Library located at 509 S. Dargan Street in Florence. Consumers may come with questions or complaints regarding a business between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Individuals are encouraged to bring documentation with them.

Mr. Crofoot will have additional tips and materials available on tax refunds and rapid anticipation loans. With the New Year, many consumers are looking to get their tax refund as early as possible. Others are looking for assistance in filing their taxes. Some may also be looking for “tax breaks” or ways to maximize their refund or minimize the difference owed. In any event, consumers should be aware of the number of tax scams out there, including quick loans that end up costing you more in the end.

The Department will continue to visit the Florence community on a regular basis. Locations will be announced monthly. The Department services the entire state via telephone and online help. Specific questions and concerns from the Florence community may be addressed to Hugh Crofoot. Appointments are available upon request. Mr. Crofoot may be reached at 803.543.8044.

About the South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs:
